

configurational homosequence

in polymers

A constitutional homosequence in which the relative or absolute configuration is defined at one or more sites of stereoisomerism in each constitutional unit in the main chain of a polymer molecule.

Source:

Purple Book, p. 36