

equivalence postulate

in polymer chemistry

The working hypothesis that the chain monomeric units are geometrically equivalent.

Source:

Purple Book, p. 78