

fixed neutral loss (gain) spectrum

in mass spectrometry

A spectrum obtained when data are acquired that determine all the parent ion mass-to-charge ratios that react by the loss (gain) of a selected neutral mass.

Source:

PAC, 1991, 63, 1541 (Recommendations for nomenclature and symbolism for mass spectroscopy (including an appendix of terms used in vacuum technology)). (Recommendations 1991) on page 1551